CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SHIVAJI PANDEY
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 29-08-2018

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

In this case, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during pendency of the writ application, the Department has passed the final order of punishment of black-mark which is a minor punishment as well as he will not be paid any amount except subsistence allowance which has already been paid to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not received any farthing by way of subsistence allowance and, thus, he has been deprived of the same. He further submits that the petitioner has also been denied the salary for the period before the order of suspension and the petitioner is at the verge of penury.

Since the final order has been passed against the petitioner, the present writ application is not maintainable. However, this Court directs the authority concerned to release the subsistence allowance, if already not paid, including the admitted dues, the petitioner is entitled, expeditiously preferably within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order.

With the aforementioned observation and direction, this writ application is dismissed as having become infructuous.
