CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 27-08-2018

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner claims consideration of compassionate appointment of her son since the petitioner's husband was Havildar in the District Force, Patna Police and died while in harness on 28.12.2003.

Counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of the State.
It has been mentioned that on 23.2.2010, son of the petitioner attained age of 12 years. Petitioner made an application for compassionate appointment of her son for the post of child constable on compassionate ground which was time barred. Claim is required to be made within five years as per the circular under which the appointment on compassionate ground is claimed. Claim of the petitioner for appointment of her son was delayed. The specific fact has been averred in the counter affidavit with reference to the application and other documents received in the department, all of which are either of 23.2.2010 or thereafter.

This assertion in counter affidavit has not been disputed or denied by the petitioner by filing re-joinder to the counter affidavit. Admittedly, the petitioner’s application for compassionate appointment is time barred. The petitioner has no enforceable claim. The writ petition is dismissed.
