ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 08-05-2018

None appeared on behalf of the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 and counsel for the State is present.

Learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 has submitted that petitioners have filed this petition for quashing of the order passed by the revisional Court in Cr. Rev. no. 76 of 2012 which was filed by the petitioners against the order passed by the learned Magistrate dismissing the petition filed by them for discharge from the case.

A report was called from the Court below which has been received. It is mentioned in the report that charge has already been framed in this case against the accused persons including the petitioners and the case is pending for evidence after charge.

Therefore, since the stage of the case has now changed and the case is pending for evidence, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned order. This Cr. Misc. petition is dismissed.

The Court below will proceed in the trial in accordance with law.
