ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE DR. JUSTICE RAVI RANJAN)

6 07-05-2018 Both petitioner and respondent no. 3 as well as parents of petitioner are present before us. The girl though accepts that she had signed the Vakalatnama when she was in After Care Home but she has explained before us that she had done that out of fear in returning home. She submits that now she has realized that she had committed mistake.

The girl has stated before us that she is living happily with her parents. She has denied marriage before us. She has also stated that she does not want to continue with this case.

In such a situation, we do not have any option than to dismiss this criminal writ petition as not pressed as the petitioner herself also does not want to continue with the case.
