CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

4 26-10-2018 Learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for the State and learned counsel for respondent nos. 6 and 8 are present and they jointly submit that the parties have now settled their disputes and in view of such settlement the wife

(respondent no. 7) be allowed to be released in favour of the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the respondent nos. 6 and 8 who are the brother and father of the victim (respondent no. 7) has also submitted that they have no objection for this.

In the aforesaid view of the matter, the order dated 10.01.2018 passed in POCSO Case No. 97 of 2017 is hereby set aside.

The petitioner will be at liberty to file a fresh application before the learned Special Judge, POCSO Act, Gaya who will consider the same in view of the developments which have taken place during the pendency of this application and shall pass an appropriate order in accordance with law within a period of 30 days from the date of filing of the application.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the respondent no. 7 is in the Remand Home with six months baby in her lap. Keeping this in mind, the petition of the petitioner must be disposed of within the aforesaid period.

This application stands disposed off accordingly.
