CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 11-04-2018

Nobody appears on behalf of the petitioner. Learned counsel for the State and J. P. University (hereinafter referred to as the ‘University’) have assisted the Court.

2. Counter affidavit has also been filed on behalf of the State as well as the University, after service of copy on learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. The stand taken in the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the University is that all admitted retiral dues of the petitioner have been paid. Calculation chart with regard to payments has also been brought on record.

4. In view of the aforesaid position and taking note of the fact that neither any counsel has appeared on behalf the petitioner nor any rejoinder filed on his behalf, the Court can only presume that the grievance of the petitioner stands redressed and he is no more interested in pursuing the matter.

5. In view thereof, the writ petition stands disposed off. However, if the petitioner finds that any payment to which he is entitled has remained unpaid, he shall be at liberty to file a detailed representation bringing materials on record to show that how such payment is due to him and has not been paid, before the respondent no. 4, who shall look into the same and pass appropriate orders, in accordance with law.
