Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned

Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Baruraj Police Station Case No. 111 of 2015, disclosing offences under Sections 395 and 397 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioner and others is that they came in police dress and stopped the truck of the informant and assaulted the driver and khalasi and took away his truck.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that petitioner has not been named in the F.I.R and his name has surfaced in this case only on the basis of confession of co-accused and except that there is nothing against the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the state opposed the prayer for bail.

Having heard both sides. considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the allegation, I am not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, this application is accordingly dismissed.

However, the petitioner, if so desire may surrender before the Court and pray for regular bail and if any such application is filed, the court below shall consider the same and pass an appropriate order on the merit of the case, without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
