The petitioner, already in custody, seeks bail in connection with Maharajganj P.S.Case No. 210 of 2017 registered under Sections 307, 324, 341, 354B, 376, 504, 506 and 511/34 of the Indian penal Code.

Allegation in brief is that informant, on the alarm raised by his daughter in the house while petitioners were making attempt to rape, reached there then he was stabbed and was referred to PMCH, Patna.

Submission is that there is much contradiction that in the FIR , it is stated that informant used to live in Punjab and in the case diary statement shows that he used to live in Gujarat and there is no discussion about the injury in the impugned order.

Having considered the nature of offence and the injury caused to the informant in the process, the prayer of bail of both
