CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE and
HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE S. KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

2 26-03-2018 In view of the communication produced by learned counsel for the Revenue dated 22.03.2018 indicating that the attachment notice under Section 226(3) of Income Tax Act has been revoked and the bank account of the petitioner has been released and the petitioner is allowed to operate all the accounts unhindered. Now no further indulgence into the matter in this petition under Article 226 is called for with regard to the amount of Rs. 5 crores 50 lacs already credited from the account of the petitioner to the account of the Central Government. Petitioner may challenge the imposition of liability and seek refund of the amount by either filing an appeal, statutory in nature before the appropriate authority or taking up the matter to the competent highest authority of the Government of India.
