CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 04-04-2018

Heard.

It appears that the petitioner's anticipatory prayer was rejected on 06.07.2017 considering the fact that this petitioner being member of Siksha Samiti in collusion with other co-accused disbursed the total amount of Rs.5,54,829/- within ten days which was sanctioned for construction of two additional class rooms. The class rooms could not be constructed as per report of junior engineer and accordingly the case was registered.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the construction work has already been completed. One of the co-accused was provisionally allowed bail by one of the coordinate Bench of this Court on 19.09.2017 in Cr.Misc.No.45910 on his undertaking that he would complete the construction work within six months. The work assigned to the petitioner has already been completed and in support of her case, the learned counsel annexed copy of certificates granted by Block Education Officer and concerned District Programme Officer.

Considering the materials as against the petitioner is earlier rejection order, I am not inclined to reconsider her prayer for anticipatory bail. Prayer is rejected. The petitioner, however is directed within two weeks from today and prayer for regular bail where her prayer shall be considered on the same day without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
