CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 02-05-2018

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners; State and B. N. Mandal University (hereinafter referred to as the 'University').

2. A consolidated third supplementary counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of the University in which it has been stated that all the admitted retiral dues have been paid and with regard to the arrears in terms of the 5th Pay Revision, without getting into the intricacies as to whether the State has actually released funds for the same or not, the University shall be making the payment within one month from today.

3. In C.W.J.C. No. 5301 of 2017, learned counsel for the University took a categorical stand that he has not submitted any paper which is mandatory for processing the claim for payment of post retiral dues. It was submitted that upon him doing so, within a month, payment shall be made of the admitted dues.

4. In C.W.J.C. No. 14348 of 2017, learned counsel for the University submitted that Group Insurance amount has remained unpaid as the Principal has not forwarded the chart but it is assured that within one month, the same shall also be paid to the petitioner.

5. With regard to C.W.J.C. No. 11535 of 2017, the stand of learned counsel for the University is that calculation relating to the arrears arising out of difference of pay scale of the Professor has been made and payment shall be made within one month.

6. Learned counsel submitted that the payments could not be made prior to filing of the affidavit due to vacation and the Vice Chancellor being out of station, as now he is back on duty, the same shall be made and only to be on the safe side, so that no default is committed, one month time has been prayed for. However, there would be every endeavour to ensure payment at the earliest.

7. Having regard to the aforesaid, in the opinion of the Court, the writ petitions have served their purpose and accordingly stand disposed off. However, as has been agreed to by learned counsel for the University, if there is any further grievance remaining or there appears to be any less payment made to any of the petitioners, the University authorities are ready to consider the same upon a detailed representation in this regard being filed before them.

8. In view thereof, the Court would grant liberty to all the petitioners to file detailed representation with regard to their remaining claims or with regard to there being any miscalculation in the amounts paid to them.

9. If such representation is filed within four weeks from today, before the Registrar of the University, the same shall be looked into and considered and also verified from the records and detailed order passed within four weeks from the date of filing of such representation. If any further payment is required to be made to any of the petitioners, the same shall also be credited into their account, in accordance with law, within four weeks from the date of passing of the order on such representation.
