kidnapping the daughter of the informant.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner out and out false and concocted allegations have been leveled, which will appear from the fact that in this case F.I.R was lodged after more than a month in spite of the fact that the informant claimed to have seen the occurrence. It has further been submitted that in between the said period second marriage of the victim girl has been Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence, I am not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, this application is accordingly dismissed.
