Allegation against the petitioners is of causing death of Mahesh Ravidas who happened to be husband of the informant and it is alleged that petitioners along with others had taken him to Tamilnadu for working but after some time her husband became traceless. During course of investigation it has come that deceased has died.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that only suspicion has been raised against the petitioners but he had no knowledge about this case due to which he could not appear earlier in this case.

Heard learned A.P.P. also who opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner stating that the petitioner is named in the F.I.R. which is of the year 2012.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. However, he may surrender before the court below and pray for regular bail which will be considered on its own merit, and, if possible, on the same day, disposed of without being prejudiced by this order.
