The petitioners apprehend their arrest in Mahila P.S. Case No.183 of 2017 registered under Sections 493, 323, 342, 505, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and ¾ of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

The informant alleged that she developed love affairs with Aman Thakur, son of petitioner Nos.1 and 2. They were frequently meeting each other and solemnized marriage. Aman Thakur also established physical relation with her but thereafter the petitioners and Aman Thakur are demanding dowry and subjected her to physical and mental torture.

The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are father-in-law, mother-in-law, sister-in-law and brother-in-law of the informant. The informant herself stated that she developed love affairs with Aman Thakur which ended in marriage between the two. Petitioners have no manner of concern with the family affairs of Aman Thakur and the informant. It is Aman Thakur who has to keep his wife.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the informant submits that the informant is ready to live with her husband.

Considering the nature of allegation made against the petitioners and the fact that the petitioners are father-in-law, mother-in-law, married sister-in-law and brother-in-law of the informant, the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order are directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Supaul in connection with Mahila P.S.
