ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 02-08-2018

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This is an appeal under Section 14(A)(2) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 against the refusal of prayer for anticipatory bail vide order dated 27.04.2018 passed by the learned Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Gaya, in A.B.P. No.88 of 2018, arising out of Imamganj Police Station Case No.198 of 2017, registered under Sections 302/364/120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3(i)(r) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989.

Deceased Subodh Paswan, the nephew of the informant, fell in love with the widow daughter-in-law of appellant Surendra

Singh and married with her. Both were residing at different place as the marriage was not liked by the society people as well as family members of the girl. The appellants and others were pressurizing for returning girl to her paternal family and in that wake murder of Subodh Paswan was committed. Suspicion is against the appellants. One of the witnesses Shankar Paswan has stated before the police that in his presence the daughter-in-law of appellant No.1 by calling on mobile enquired from appellant No.1, the reason for abduction of her husband and informed that she would return back in the event of his release.

After hearing the parties and finding strong suspicious material against the appellants, I am not inclined to enlarge the appellants on anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, the appeal stands dismissed.
