ORAL ORDER

3      20-11-2018      Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned APP for the State.

The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in a case registered under Sections 341, 323, 324, 307, 504, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case, in brief, is that when the informant was buying vegetables, he heard cry of his brother and saw that the petitioners and three unknown persons had caught hold of his brother and co-accused Vikash Kumar was stabbing into his abdomen.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioners that the petitioners have got no criminal antecedent. There is no allegation of tampering of witnesses alleged against the petitioners. The petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case. The petitioners are alleged to have caught hold of the victim at the time of occurrence. The allegation of stabbing is alleged against co-accused Vikash Kumar @ Tiger. No injury has been attributed against these petitioners.

On behalf of the State, it is submitted that the petitioners are named in the Complaint Case/F.I.R. The specific overt act is alleged against these petitioners. They are alleged to have caught hold of the victim at the time of occurrence. The nature of injury is said to be grievous.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners in connection with Revilganj P.S. Case No. 48 of 2018 is rejected.

If the petitioners surrender in the court below and seek regular bail, the same shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order.
