Order On Board

06/09/2018

On the last date of hearing, no representation was made. One more opportunity was granted to the petitioner to appear today on a fixed date of hearing. Today also, there is no representation nor the petitioner has engaged any counsel to represent his case.

Looking to the callous and frivolous allegations made against the counsel who appeared earlier, this Court was inclined to pass stern order against the petitioner, but taking into consideration his application seeking apology and withdrawal of the case, this Court is not inclined to proceed further in the matter. The petition is as frivolous as it could be and deserves to be dismissed. The petition is accordingly dismissed.
