Order On Board

04.12.2018

1. The challenge in both these writ petitions are to the orders Annexure-P/1 dated 04.11.2015 whereby the order of deputation of the petitioners for the post of Cluster Co-ordinator has been cancelled.

2. Perusal of the records would see that in both these writ petitions, this Court had on 04.12.2015 rejected the application for grant of interim relief. The writ petitions are pending before this Court for last three years. By efflux of time as a consequence of the rejection of the interim application, the petitioners must have gone back to their substantive parent department for discharging their duties and as such the matters must have rendered infructuous.

3. Accordingly, both the writ petitions stands dismissed as having become infructuous.
