Order On Board

13/09/2018

Heard.

1. At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the co-accused similarly situated in the same case has been granted benefit of remission by the respondent- authority.
2. Respondents have not taken any decision on petitioner's application.

However, in the return, relief claimed by the petitioner has been denied.

3. Without commenting on merits of the case, considering the submission that a co-accused of the same case has been granted benefit of remission, respondents may consider and take decision on petitioner's application for remission within a period of 60 days, on its own merits and in accordance with law.
4. The petition is accordingly disposed off.
5. It is made clear that this Court has not commented upon merits of the case and it would be open for the authority to take decision in the matter.
