Order On Board

18/05/2018

Learned counsel for the applicants has placed before this Court various orders passed in CrMP No.917/2017. He submits that the interim order passed on 27/02/2018, was not continued on subsequent dates. Therefore, the applicants are apprehending that now, they are likely to be arrested.

2. Whether the interim order is continuing or not, it would not be proper for this Court to comment upon. Considering that there was already an interim order passed in favour of the applicants / petitioners in CrMP No.917/2017, this Court is not inclined to entertain this application at this stage. This bail application is accordingly dismissed.
