Order On Board

27/11/2018

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during pendency of instant writ petitions, civil suit has been dismissed for want of non payment of court fee, as such, no cause of action survives for consideration.
2. In view of above, all the writ petitions are dismissed as having become infructuous. However, the petitioner is at liberty to question that order, if the appeal preferred thereagainst before the first appellate Court.
