Order On Board

Heard.

1. In this case earlier notices were issued to other parties. Though number of grounds have been raised, considering that the petition is against the charge sheet on which charges have not yet been framed and also that an attempt made to seek conciliation has also failed, this Court is not inclined to proceed further in the matter.
2. Therefore, reserving petitioners' liberty to take all the remedies available to them before the trial Court against framing of charge, this petition is finally disposed off.
