Order On Board

09/02/2018

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the outset, submits that the petitioner has made representation to the department and he may be permitted to withdraw the petition at this juncture with liberty to approach the authorities concerned for redressal of his grievance.

If the petitioner has made representation to the department, the department is free to decide the same in accordance with law. In addition, the petitioner would also be entitled to make fresh representation.

This petition is accordingly finally disposed off.

It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case.
