Order On Board

06/04/2018

At the outset, learned counsel for the State submits that the representation of the petitioner has been considered and decision has been taken.

2. Though learned counsel for the petitioner disputes the correctness and validity of the decision taken by the respondents, this Court is not inclined to proceed further in the matter because the petition was disposed off with a direction to consider representation and it was not a direction to decide merits of the case of the petitioners.

3. With the liberty to challenge the rejection order, this petition is closed.
