Order On Board

20/04/2018

In both the applications, it is submitted by learned counsel for the applicants that initially, they were arrested for bailable offence including offence for non-bailable in nature. Later on, at the time of framing of charges, the Trial Court only framed charges for offences which are bailable in nature.

Let the applicants move application for bail before the Trial Court and the Trial Court shall pass suitable orders for grant of bail.

The aforesaid bail applications are accordingly disposed off.
