Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay K. AgrawalOrder On Board*26/03/18

1. This writ petition has been preferred by the petitioner challenging the impugned order dated 26.02.2018, whereby the revision preferred by the petitioner has been admitted but the stay application filed by her has been dismissed by Commissioner, District Ambikapur.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the impugned order is unsustainable and bad in law as the same has been passed without affording any opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and, therefore, it is liable to be set aside.

3. On the other hand, learned State counsel would oppose the submissions made by counsel for the petitioner and support the order impugned.

4. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the impugned order with utmost circumspection.

5. After hearing learned counsel for the parties, it would be expedient to direct the Commissioner, District Ambikapur to dispose of the revision preferred by the petitioner expeditiously preferably within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order after hearing the affected parties.

6. With the aforesaid observation, the writ petition stands finally disposed of. No order as to cost(s).
