1. Heard.
2. Mr. Jitendra Pali, learned counsel for the petitioner, would fairly submit that during pendency of the contempt petition, the respondents have complied with the order by deciding the petitioner's representation, however, there is some delay in deciding the representation.
3. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, it appears the delay is not malafide.
4. In view of the above, the contempt petition is disposed of reserving liberty in favour of the petitioner to assail the order rejecting his representation by moving a fresh writ petition.
