Given the facts that the petitioner has an alternative efficacious remedy of appeal under the scheme itself, the present writ petition at this stage is held to be premature reserving the liberty of the petitioner to prefer an appeal within a period of two weeks from today. The appellate authority shall thereafter on receipt of the appeal shall consider and decide the same in accordance with rules ignoring the question of limitation, if any, and the appeal be decided as expeditiously as possible on merits preferably within a period of 60 days from the date of receipt of the appeal.
5. The writ petition accordingly stands disposed of.
