Order on Board

Per Ajay Kumar Tripathi, Chief Justice

18/07/2018

1. Since the Government of India, Ministry of Human Resource Development has itself constituted a Oversight Committee to look into the issues arising out of implementation of revised Recruitment Rules for Faculty and Non-Faculty of the National Institute of Technology, the grievances which is sought to be raised while challenging the revised recruitment rules in the present writ application is not required to be decided at this stage. It may amount to pre-empting the Committee from looking into the matter independently.

2. The writ application stands disposed off with liberty to the Petitioner to agitate the issue before the Oversight Committee which will examine the anomalies which is perceived by the Petitioner and make its appropriate recommendation.
3. It goes without saying that if the Petitioner is not satisfied with the decision or recommendation which may finally be taken by the Oversight Committee or of the Union of India, he will have the remedy in law.
4. The writ application stands disposed off in the above terms.
