Order on Board

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had filed this writ petition challenging the order dated 23-08-2013 by which, he was directed to undergo training and interim order was operated in favour of the petitioner.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner would further submit that later on, the petitioner carried an impression that respondent would not be insisting on this order. Therefore, he made statement that the petition is rendered infructuous in these circumstances. The petitioner would like to press the petition on merits.
