Hon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam KoshyOrder On Board*13/07/2018

The claim of the petitioner is for grant of compassionate appointment.

2. When at the first instance the petitioner had moved an application for grant of compassionate appointment, he was intimated by respondent no.3 that he should produce a succession certificate as there are more than one claimants. The petitioner thereafter obtained a succession certificate from the competent Court of law which stood decided vide order dated 24.06.2017. Thereafter on the basis of succession certificate the petitioner again moved an application before respondent no.3 for reconsidering his claim for compassionate appointment which the respondent no.3 on an earlier occasion vide Annexure P-1 had assured for reconsideration.

3. Given the nature of dispute and the documents enclosed with the writ petition, this Court does not intend to keep the petition pending. Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent no.3 to consider and decide the claim of the petitioner so far as grant of compassionate appointment is concerned in the light of the letter dated 04.08.2014 issued by him and the succession certificate received by the petitioner on 24.06.2017 as expeditiously as possible preferably within an outer limit of 60 days from the date of presentation of the certified copy of this order. It shall be the responsibility of the petitioner to bring to the notice of respondent no.3 so far as the order passed by this Court is concerned.
