Order on Board

03.10.2018

1. The present contempt petition has been filed against non compliance of the order passed by this court in Criminal Revision No.643 of 2016 decided on 15.07.2016 and the order passed by this court in Contempt Case No.102 of 2017 decided on 17.02.2017.
2. The whole dispute revolves around non registration of criminal offence against the offenders by the contemnors. The contempt of courts Act specifically provides for a specific period of limitation within which the same has to be filed if there is deliberate willful non compliance of the courts order. It appears that the present contempt petition has been filed much beyond the period of limitation prescribed under the Contempt of Courts Act. Moreover, perusal of two orders would also show that there was no specific time limit provided by this court within which the compliance had to be done by the authorities concerned which all the more would make it difficult for this court to exercise the contempt jurisdiction at this juncture.

3. Accordingly, reserving the right to avail the remedies available to the petitioner for redressal of her grievance, the contempt petition at this juncture for the aforesaid reasons deserves to be and is hereby rejected.
