Order On Board By

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Prashant Kumar Mishra

22/10/2018

1. Heard.
2. The petitioner is seeking information from the Public Information Officer of Uttar Pradesh Rajkiya Nirman Nigam Limited, who is executing a contract for construction, repair and laying of road of Guru Ghasidas University, Bilaspur.

3. The petitioner is aggrieved by non-supply of information by the Uttar Pradesh Rajkiya Nirman Nigam Limited. He is not aggrieved by the tender process or any illegality or irregularity concerning the tender. The petitioner is in fact aggrieved by non-supply of information.
4. To maintain such petition, the cause of action or any part thereof should have been accrued in the State of Chhattisgarh, however, all the respondents are residents of Lucknow and their office is also located at Lucknow.
5. Since neither the respondents are residing or their office is located in the State of Chhattisgarh nor the cause of action in relation to seeking information has accrued within the State of Chhattisgarh, the writ petition is not maintainable for want of territorial jurisdiction.
6. The writ petition is dismissed, as not maintainable. The petitioner may prefer a duly constituted writ petition before the jurisdictional High Court.
