2. The writ was filed against the second show cause issued to her as a part of disciplinary action initiated.
3. The submission of the counsel against the order of the learned Single Judge dated 13.09.2018 is that the Respondent authorities already have a pre-determined mind set to pass a particular order against the Appellant.
4. The learned Single Judge did not entertain such an argument on the ground that the Appellant has all the opportunity to show to the disciplinary authority whatever objections she may have including the misgivings in law before an order of punishment, if at all is required to be visited.

5. The learned Single Judge has further given ample scope of opportunity to the Appellant to respond to the second show cause and if the disciplinary authority decides to impose some kind of punishment, the Appellant has all the opportunity thereafter to assail the said decision before the appropriate forum or a Court of law.
6. No infirmity emerges from the order of the learned Single Judge. The appeal is dismissed.
