2. Counsel for the applicants submits that the repeat bail application has been filed pursuant to certain witnesses have been examined and who have either not supported the case of the prosecution or have disproved the case of the prosecution.

3. State counsel, however, opposing the bail application submits that the complainant Satyawati is yet to be examined and the property was also in the name of the complainant Satyawati which is alleged to have been got sold by the applicants in connivance with other accused persons.

4. Given the aforesaid contentions and submissions on either side, this Court is of the opinion that no strong case for grant of bail has been made out. Accordingly, the present bail application stands rejected reserving the right of the applicants to revive the same after the complainant Satyawati is examined.
