Order on Board

26-11-2018

1. Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.434/18, registered at Police Station – Telibandha, Raipur, District- Raipur, Chhattisgarh for offence punishable under Section 294, 323, 427, 452, 506 of the IPC, the applicant has preferred this application for grant of anticipatory bail.
2. It is submitted by learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant has been falsely implicated in this case. Apart from the offence under Section 452 of the IPC, the other offences registered against the applicant are bailable in nature which are the main offences. Hence, it is prayed that this applicant may be benefited with grant of anticipatory bail.
3. Learned counsel for the State/non-applicant opposes the application.
4. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.
5. According to the FIR lodged, this applicant entered into the shop of complainant Pramod Kumar Sundrani and then abused, threatened and caused mischief by damaging the property and also assaulted the complainant by using hands and fists causing him simple injuries. Hence, this case.
6. After considering on the entire material present in the case diary and for the reason that the main offences in this case are bailable in nature, I feel inclined to allow this application.

7. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed. It is directed that in the event of arrest of the applicant in connection with the aforesaid offence, he shall be released on bail by the officer arresting him on executing a personal bond in sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Investigating Officer. The applicant shall also abide by the following conditions :

- (i) that the applicant shall make himself available for interrogation before the investigating officer as and when required;
- (ii) that the applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;
- (iii) that the applicant shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial; and
- (iv) that the applicant shall appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court till disposal of the trial.

8. Certified copy as per rules.
