Dated: February 02, 2018

We have heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing for the respective respondents for some time.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that, the petitioner will file the Review Application. He may be allowed to take all the contentions raised in this Petition in the proposed Review Application. He further submits that, time spent in filing and prosecuting this Petition may be considered while considering the prayer of the petitioner for delay in filing the proposed Review Application. He prays two weeks time to file the Review Application. Time granted as prayed for.

3. In the circumstances, Writ Petition stands disposed of.

4. We make it clear that, ad-interim relief granted in Writ Petition shall continue to remain in force for two weeks.
