CORAM : RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.
Dated: August 24, 2018

PER COURT :-

1. The applicant prays for withdrawal of the amount deposited in this Court by the petitioner. There is no dispute that the applicant has been reinstated in service pursuant to the award and in view of the order of this Court dated 20.4.2015.
2. The record reveals that the impugned award grants 75% backwages to the applicant. This Court had directed depositing of 50% of the backwages.
3. Learned Advocate for the petitioner / management strenuously contends that the respondent was a Security Guard and the management was not the actual employer. He was engaged through a Contractor M/s Shakti Bhavati Security Sanstha and subsequently M/s Kohinoor Enterprises which was a proprietary firm and the applicant worker was the sole proprietor of the said firm. He, therefore, would not become an employee of the petitioner and there was no employer-employee relationship between the parties.

4. He, however, submits that pursuant to the order of this Court in the Writ Petition, dated 20.4.2015, the applicant had been reinstated in service and the 50% amount towards backwages have also been deposited. Besides the above, learned Advocate for the applicant submits that if the management pays 50% of the actual backwages which is open to negotiations, he would waive the 25% of the backwages granted by the Labour Court and this litigation can be brought to an end. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he would take instructions.

5. Considering the above, this civil application is allowed and the applicant is permitted to withdraw an amount of Rs.1,00,000/- by tendering an affidavit / undertaking that if he suffers an adverse orders in the Writ Petition, he will redeposit the said amount in this Court within six weeks. While withdrawing the amount, the applicant shall tender a recent photograph, the recent address proof and his Election Commission's Voter Id card.
