

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY BENCH AT AURANGABAD

WRIT PETITION NO. 4810 OF 2006

THE STATE OF MAHARASHTRA VERSUS
VIJAY G BURANDE

Mr.V.S.Badakh, AGP for petitioner/State.
Mr.Milind Patil for Respondent

CORAM : S.V. GANGAPURWALA &
S.M.GAVHANE, JJ.

DATED : 24.08.2018

P.C. :-

We have heard the learned AGP for the petitioner. The learned AGP submits that the petitioners were appointed on Ad-hoc basis and not entitled for the increments and the leave benefits. The Tribunal failed to consider the said aspect. The matter was referred to the Larger Bench of the Tribunal.

2. The Tribunal has observed that a policy decision has been taken by the Government under Government Resolution dated 10.04.2003 to extend the benefit of annual increments to the Lecturers working with Government Medical College for more than 365 days and the benefit of leave to all Ad-hoc employees working with the State Government.

3. The order of this Court at the Principal seat in Writ Petition 2158 of 2011 and the connected Writ Petition is pointed out, wherein in similar set of facts the order of Tribunal is upheld. The order of this Court in Writ Petition No.3484 of 2005 decided and in Writ Petition No.372 of 2011 decided on 24.01.2011 was carried in appeal before the Apex Court and the Apex Court confirmed the order of this Court.

4. In light of the above there is no merit in the petition. The writ petition is dismissed. Rule discharged. No costs.
