CORAM : V.L. ACHLIYA, J.

DATED : 10th AUGUST, 2018

PER COURT:-

1. The applicant/s- appellant/s have filed these applications for condonation of delay of about 215 days in filing appeal against the award passed by the Reference Court.
2. Heard the learned counsel for the applicant/s and the learned A.G.P for respondents no. 4 and 5. The advocate representing respondents – claimants is absent.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant/s – appellant/s submits that the delay caused in filing appeals was not deliberate, but caused due to time spent in completing the procedural formalities to file appeals and securing funds to deposit the Court fees. He submits that the appellant has a good case to succeed in appeal. In case, the delay is not condoned, there is every likelihood that a serious prejudice may result to applicant/s – appellant/s. Whereas, no serious prejudice would be caused to respondents if delay is condoned as the case will be decided on merit

4. Considering the cause assigned for condonation of delay, I am of the view that delay has been properly explained. Accordingly, the civil applications are allowed in terms of prayer clause 'a' of the respective applications. Delay condoned. Appeals be registered.

8. The civil applications are disposed of in above terms.
