was referred to learned Mediator, as the parties expressed their willingness to explore the possibilities of an amicable settlement through mediation process. Today, the report of learned Mediator is also placed on record. The perusal of report shows that the parties have settled their dispute amicably with the intervention of learned Mediator. The terms are settled between the parties. The terms between the parties settled by them are duly signed by the parties and their respective Counsel.

3. As per clause-3 of the terms of settlement, the appellant was to hand over demand draft of Rs.6,00,000/- (Rs. Six lacs only) drawn in favour of respondent Amruta d/o Bhanudas Jagdhane. Today, the said demand draft is also handed over to the respondent. The respondent agreed to withdraw the proceedings. The parties have agreed to withdraw two proceedings filed before learned Principal Family Court at Aurangabad being E-Petition No.30 of 2018 and E-Petition No.A-106 of
