PER COURT :

1. The petitioner has challenged the judgment and order delivered by the Labour Court, Nanded dated 12/09/2017, in complaint (ULP) No. 10/2017. The statutory revisional remedy under Section 44 of the MRTU and PULP Act, 1971, has not been availed of.

entertained until a revision under Section 44 is preferred.

3. In view of the above and since limitation is not prescribed under Section 44, this petition is disposed off with liberty to the petitioner to avail of the revisional remedy before the Industrial Court.
