CORAM : R.M.BORDE, J.

DATE : 19th APRIL, 2018

PER COURT:

Challenge raised in the instant petition is in respect of recording of revenue entries by the authorities. It is well established principle that revenue entries are recorded for fiscal purpose and those entries in themselves are not evidence of entitlement or title of the parties in relation to the immovable properties. The revenue entries are liable to be changed or modified in accordance with the decision by competent civil Court as regards entitlement of the parties in relation to the property. It is further observed that the substantive proceeding in the shape of Regular Civil Suit No. 163/2010 is pending. The revenue entries are recorded subject to outcome of civil litigation pending between the parties. Even otherwise, as has been recorded above, revenue entries are liable to be modified in accordance with the decision of the competent civil Court.

In this view of the matter, no interference is called for. Writ petition is disposed of.
