CORAM : S.V. GANGAPURWALA AND
S. M. GAVHANE, JJ.
DATED : 25th September, 2018

PER COURT:

. The Public Interest Litigation Nos. 18/2012 and 31/2012 seek direction against the authorities to initiate action on the basis of the defaulting institutions based on the report of Special Pat Paddalni 2011. According to the petitioners, the report of the Pat Paddalni has been received in the year 2011. Large scale malpractices have been noticed. However, the authorities have shown lethargy in taking any action against the defaulting institutions. The defaulting institutions have garnered huge amounts of the public funds in the nature of grants, so also, appointed excess teachers and received salary and non salary grants. The authorities are not initiating any action against the said erring institutions.

2. Writ petitions are filed individually by some of the institutions receiving notice from the authority as to why criminal action shall not be taken against them pursuant to the report of Special Pat Padtalni of the year 2011 and the strength of student in the subsequent years.

3. The learned counsel for the writ petitioners and the intervenors in the Public Interest Litigation submit that in Public Interest Litigation No. 18 of 2012 this court under order dated 11th October, 2012 directed hearing of the Public Interest Litigation along with Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 with connected matters. However, this order was not brought to the notice of this court by the petitioners in Public Interest Litigations and the State and this Public Interest Litigation continued independently Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 is decided independently by this court. The Division Bench of this Court under judgment and order dated 24.10.2013 decided the writ petition challenging the Government Resolution dated 2nd May, 2012 and thereby struck down clauses 1.2 to 1.7. According to the learned counsel for the petitioners and the intervenors, the said clauses specifically dealt with filing criminal cases against the institutions wherein the students were shown absent. The said clauses have been struck down. This court also came to the conclusion that the methodology adopted for conducting the Special Pat Padtalni was erroneous. According to them the respondents can not initiate criminal action on the basis of the Pat Padtalni report of the year 2011 as the same has been set aside by this court in its judgment dated 24.10.2013 in Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012. The learned counsel further submits that, the First Information Report has been lodged under the order of dictation. The higher officers have directed the Education Officer to lodge the criminal cases and submit the report against all these institutions. The issuance of notices itself is bad in law. The notices on the basis of the Pat Padtalni which has been set aside by this court in Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 can not be the basis for issuing notices and filing criminal cases. No independent mind has been applied. The communications are by the higher officers and the State to the Education Department to lodge the criminal cases. It is clear that the petitioners say would not be considered by the respondents.

4. Mr. Girase, the learned Government Pleader submits that by filing an affidavit in Public Interest Litigation No. 31 of 2012 the State has brought to the notice of this court the judgment delivered in Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 dated 24.10.2013. The State has not suppressed the judgment. This court passed various orders in the present Public Interest Litigation thereby refusing any relief to the writ petitioners and State has made a statement that the action would be taken against the erring institutions. On the basis of the same, notices have been issued to the erring institutions, though in the Pat Padtalni report 1652 erring institutions are mentioned. The notices have been issued to only 780 schools after verifying the record.

5. According to the learned Government Pleader the action would be taken by the State after receiving the reply and taking the decision upon the show cause notices issued to them. The present writ petitions filed by individual institutions are pre-mature. The learned Government Pleader submits that in similar cases this court in Writ Petition No. 8242 of 2018 under order dated 24.07.2018 had dismissed the petition on the ground that it is pre-mature and in this writ petition this court also refused to grant interim orders.

6. We have considered the submissions canvassed by the learned counsel for respective parties.

7. There can not be any debate on the proposition that erring institutions have to be dealt with iron hand. If the institutions garners public funds in the shape of grants by showing excess number of students, then such institutions have to be dealt with all rigours under law.

8. We are confronted with the various orders passed by this court.

9. The Government had issued resolution dated 02.05.2012 pursuant to the Special Pat Padtalni conducted in or about October – 2011. The Government Resolution prescribed for taking various steps. The said Government Resolution was assailed in Writ Petition bearing No. 4168 of 2012. Unfortunately, it appears that the order passed on 12th October, 2012 in Public Interest Litigation Nos. 18 of 2012 and 31 of 2012 was not brought to the notice of the court and the said Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 was independently decided by this court on 24.10.2013. The said writ petition was challenging the Government Resolution dated 02.05.2012 issued on the basis of Pat Padtalni of 2011 was issued. This court in the said judgment observed thus:

34. In the instant matter, prior to issuing impugned Government Resolution, a novel method has been evolved by the State Government of deploying employees of Revenue Department for verifying attendance of the students in the schools under the special drive undertaken by the State. As has been referred to above, the State government does have powers to appoint officers for the purposes of superintendence and inspection, however, there has to be an authorization in respect of powers and duties in favour of such officers, as may be prescribed. In the instant matter, it does not appear that the special drive conducted by the Revenue officials has been under the orders, as contemplated by Section 48 of the Bombay Primary Education Act, 1947. It would be open for the State Government to cause inspection of the schools through the officers appointed in that behalf excluding officers of the Education Department, however, in terms of sub-section (2) of Section 48, the State shall prescribe powers and duties of such officers. The provisions of Section 48 contemplate an order prescribing powers and duties of the officers appointed for conducting inspection of the schools. In the instant matter, the procedure, as prescribed under Section 48, does not appear to have been followed.

36. It is quite surprising that the State Government suspects impartiality and loyalty of its own officers serving in the Education Department. Sweeping allegations have been made against the officers working in the Education Department. It is also not clarified as to what steps are taken by the State Government against erring officers whose integrity is suspected. The functions of the officers of Revenue Department are quite distinct and it can not be inferred that they are conversant with the functioning of the Education Department. It is also intriguing to note that while doubting integrity of the officers of the Education Department, whether the State Government indirectly proposes to certify integrity and character of all the officers of the Revenue Department. The stand taken by the State Government, in its affidavit in reply, is not at all acceptable and we put on record our displeasure as regards the sweeping allegations made in the affidavit in reply concerning officers functioning in the Education Department.

42. As has been observed above, in the instant matter, the directives issued under the impugned Government Resolution in clauses 1.2 to 1.7, are contrary to the express provisions of the Act and the Rules framed thereunder. An order, issued against an employee, directing him to retire compulsorily before attaining age of superannuation, has been set aside by the High Court in the matter of Sukanya Apte & another Vs. State of Maharashtra & others, reported in 2007 (5) Bom. C.R. 472:[2007 (6) All MR 59] and in the matter of Namdeo Bikkad & another Vs. State of Maharashtra (Writ Petition No. 1772 of 1997, decided on 14.07.2006), holding that since the provisions of MEPS Act and Rules framed thereunder do not provide for compulsory retirement of an employee, such an order is unsustainable in law. In the instant matter, directives have been issued by the Government under the Government Resolution, which are clearly in contravention of the Act and the Rules.

10. This court while concluding the judgment had clarified that the powers of the State Government to initiate criminal prosecution against the management, the private staff, Headmasters, Teachers and other employees is not taken away and in the event it is found that private management or its employees have indulged in activities which amount to an offence under the provision of Indian Penal Code or any other enactment it would be open for the State Government to initiate prosecution against such management and the employees concerned. It is further observed that the management and the employees can not be prosecuted and charged with commission of an offence merely because during special drive attendance of the students is found to be less than 50%. The management as well as employees of the school if are suspected to be guilty of fabricating of record or indulging in any unlawful activities and are responsible for creating false record to demonstrate inflated strength of students in school with a view to extract inadmissible financial gain, can be prosecuted by taking recourse to the provisions of the Indian Penal Code.

11. The judgment of this court in Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 has given powers to the State Government to take action if it is found by the State Government that the schools have fabricated the record or indulged in unlawful activities and are found responsible for creating false record to demonstrate more students in the school with a view to get inadmissible financial gain. It is for the Government on perusal of the record to arrive at a conscious conclusion of the unlawful gain being obtained by the institutions.

12. Today only show cause notices are issued to the petitioners filing independent writ petitions and the intervenors. The explanation is sought from these institutions. The respondent authorities are duty bound to consider the explanation given by the petitioners and also the orders passed in the present Public Interest Litigations from time to time or also the judgment of the Division Bench of this court in Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 dated 24.10.2013. All these aspects will have to be considered by the State Government while deciding the show cause notices and arrive at a conscious conclusion of the institutions garnering inadmissible financial benefits or otherwise.

13. This court can not stall the criminal law being set into motion if the State finds that the institutions have defaulted and erred in extracting inadmissible financial benefits. If at all the decision is taken by the State after considering the explanation and still the parties are aggrieved the remedy is open for them to assail the action of the State.

14. It appears that the State Government and its superior authorities have issued communications to the Education Officers to lodge the criminal cases, the same will have to be read to mean against the erring institutions and not as a matter of policy against each and every institution. Naturally, the authority while taking the decision upon the show cause notices will consider the explanation given by the petitioners, the records and the orders passed by this court in Public Interest Litigations and also Writ Petition No. 4168 of 2012 dated 24.10.2013, and then take a conscious decision upon it.

15. As the show cause notices issued by the respondents are not finally decided we refrain from commenting upon the merits of the same. As the State has initiated further course of action the purpose of the Public Interest Litigations also does not survive. We expect the State to take decision on the show cause notices expeditiously.

16. As the purpose of the Public Interest Litigations stand served, the Public Interest Litigations are disposed of. So also as the actions are initiated, the Contempt Petition stands disposed of. Writ Petitions also stand disposed of. Civil Applications stand disposed of.
