Dated: October 17, 2018

PER COURT :

1. Heard the learned Counsel appearing for the respective parties.

The learned Counsel for the respondents pointed out that, herein before also extension had been sought at least on two occasions and despite availing the said opportunities, the amount has not been deposited. The learned Counsel, in the circumstances, though has not opposed for granting further time, has opposed for granting 16 weeks' time.
3. It is contended that, since the bank accounts were frozen by the Court in some other proceedings, the amount could not be deposited. Now, it is contended that, the bank accounts are defrozen. As such, there may not be any difficulty for the Acquiring Body to deposit the amount within a reasonable period. It is also contended that, the entire amount may not be possible to be deposited even the bank Account is released. Considering the circumstances, finally eight weeks time is allowed to deposit the amount.
