CORAM: RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.
DATE :- 26th November, 2018

Per Court:

1 The learned Advocate for the Petitioner submits that considering the subsequent events that have occurred and the pending appeal before the first Appellate Court having been allowed, this petition is rendered infructuous.

2 The learned Advocate for the Respondents confirms the said statement.

3 In view of the above, this Writ Petition is disposed of as being rendered infructuous.

4 Needless to state, further litigation at the behest of the aggrieved party would have all the issues and contentions left open.
