

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY.
BENCH AT AURANGABAD.

WRIT PETITION NO. 15006 OF 2017

Mahima Rajiv Ingale
Through Her Father R. S. Ingale ... Petitioner

VERSUS

The State of Maharashtra & Ors. ... Respondents

.....
Mr S. S. Thombre, Advocate for the petitioner
Mr A. S. Shinde, AGP for respondent/State
.....

CORAM : S. V. GANGAPURWALA &
A. M. DHAVAL, JJ.

DATE : 15TH JANUARY, 2018.

ORDER:

1. Mr Thombre, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that, the petitioner had applied for B.Sc. Para Medical Technology (Cardiology) as a first preference but the petitioner was allotted Operation Theatre. The petitioner had given the preference for Cardiology, the said preference ought to have been considered by the respondents. The petitioner on 14.11.2017 filed an application with respondent No. 3 to consider his request to change the subject from Operation Theatre to Cardiology. The seat for the said subject was also vacant, however, the said request is not considered by the respondents.

2. The learned AGP submits that, there were five seats meant for B.Sc. (Cardiology). The students selected for B.Sc. Cardiology are having more marks than the present petitioner.

3. We have perused the affidavit filed by the respondents. It is stated that, there were five seats for Cardiology. Four seats are meant for general category and one for women category. Out of general category, one seat is reserved for ST category and one for OBC and two for open competition and one seat is reserved for OBC category for women. The petitioner is having less marks. The students selected from OBC category have secured 65.08% and 60% in HSC, whereas; the petitioner has secured 50.01% marks.

4. In light of the above, no merit in the contention of the petitioner. Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.

[A. M. DHAVALA]
JUDGE

[S. V. GANGAPURWALA]
JUDGE

Punde