The parties through their counsel.

2. The learned Advocate General has made a statement that the order passed by this Court on 23 February 2017 in Writ Petition No.297/2015 has been complied with and the corrections in respect of survey numbers have been carried out.

3. The learned Senior Counsel for the Petitioner submits that the Respondents though have made alteration in the entries as was prayed in the writ petition but have made alterations in two more survey nos.i.e. Survey no.7 sub-division 24 and of Survey no.13, sub-division 6 which were not the subject matter of the writ petition and those alterations were not sought by the Petitioner.

4. Be that as it may. Since the Respondents have made corrections in regard to which directions we issued, we are of the view that nothing survives in the contempt petition.
