CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION No. 1074 OF 2018

Shraddha Mayur Naik

...Petitioner

Vs.

The State of Maharashtra

...Respondent

Mr. Nilesh Badgajar for Petitioner
Mrs. S.S. Kaushik -APP for the State

CORAM : NITIN W. SAMBRE, J.

DATE: MARCH 7, 2018

P.C.

1. In Sessions Case No. 547 of 2014, the Learned Sessions Judge, Pune having noticed absence of the Petitioner-Accused No.3 passed an order of issuance of non-bailable warrant on 10th February, 2018. Application below Exhibit 120 for cancellation of bail has already been rejected by the impugned order dated February 22, 2018, as such this petition.
2. The learned counsel for the Petitioner would state the cause as stated in the petition for cancellation of non-bailable warrant and assure this Court that the Petitioner henceforth shall make every endeavor to attend the proceedings and shall not delay the prosecution.

3. The learned APP for the State has strongly objected the claim put forth by the Petitioner. According to her, the Petitioner-Accused has consistently remained absent before the Sessions Court with an intention to protract the trial.

4. Considering the rival submissions. For the cause mentioned in the application for cancellation of non-bailable warrant and in view of assurance given on behalf of the Petitioner that she shall attend the prosecution on each date, the orders impugned dated 22nd February, 2018 and 1st February, 2018 are hereby set aside subject to payment of the costs of Rs.2,000/- to the Legal Aid Services, Pune within a period of three weeks from today. The statement made on behalf of the Petitioner that she shall attend the proceedings before the Learned Sessions Court regularly, is accepted.

5. Writ petition is disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
