CORAM : K. K. SONAWANE, J.
DATE : 13th AUGUST, 2018.

P. C.:

1. Heard learned Counsel for the applicants-original defendants and learned Counsel for respondent-original claimant.

2. Learned Counsel for the applicant-original defendant submits that the original defendant is intending to prefer appeal against the impugned judgment and decree passed by the City Civil Court, Greater Bombay, but there is delay in presenting the appeal. The delay caused is not intentional and deliberate but caused due to unavoidable circumstances. Learned Counsel requested to condone the delay.

3. Learned Counsel appearing for respondent-original plaintiff did not put in controversy the issue of condonation of delay and submits to pass suitable order in the interest of justice.

4. In view of nature of the subject matter, which is pertains to immovable property, I find that reasonable opportunity is to be given to the applicant-original defendant to approach to the appellate forum to ventilate its grievances for redressal. It would not cause any injustice and prejudice to respondents. In contrast, it would subserve the purpose in the interest of justice. In view of reasons mentioned in the application, there is no impediment to condone the delay.

5. Accordingly, civil applications stand allowed in terms of prayer clause (a). The delay caused for filing appeal is hereby condoned. The Registry to take requisite steps for further process.

6. Accordingly civil applications stand disposed of.

7. On registration of appeal, issue notice of admission to the respondents, returnable on 11th September, 2018. Mr. Kandekar, learned Counsel waives notice for respondent in respective matters.

8. After compliance, list these appeals for admission on 11th September, 2018.
